UNRELIABLE WITNESSES

THE Santa Rosa Press Democrat the other day editorially said:

A cleanup in prohibition enforcement circles is promised. It is about time. The employment of ex-convicts, plug-uglies and women of notorious character to enforce the law governing the sale of intoxicants has long constituted a public scandal, and has done much to bring the law into dispute. It is absurd to say that nobody else can secure the evidence required to bring about a conviction. Plenty of intelligent men and women can be found who will secure results at least as good as those attained up to the present time, while their presence in the field will arouse far less resentment than is occasioned under the existing system. There should be a certain amount of dignity attendant upon the enforcement of any law. This can never be attained through the employment of enforcement officers who are known to have persistently violated every la wof God and man, and induced finally to pretend allegiance to order and decency only after their regular lines of pursuit have been closed to them, and then admittedly merely for hire and to prey upon the elements that formerly supporte them.

Juries everywhere are beginning to decline to accept the testimony of disreputable men and women who are employed to decoy people into violating the law and then appearaing against them in court.

THE CARDS OF LIFE

THIS page the other day was struck by the merit of the story contained in a bit of verse, indifferently well gotten together, which is reproduced below. Really a lot of dread of death would be avoided if everyone could be gotten to understand that, if they did the best they could by their fellowman, they would not go far wrong, but, to get back to the poem mentioned, here it is:

Life's but a game of cards we all must play,
With Fate the dealer; in a puzzling way,
The deck is stacked upon us, and the hand
We sometimes hold we cannot understand.
For one a full house always, and for one
A busted straight or flush, so luck will run;
A queen for an unworthy knave's abuse,
And for a king a woman who's the deuce.
Diamonds for some, but better one true heart.
For others clubs; and spades when all depart.
Through life we plunge or pike, we practice guile,
Bluff maybe; try to win each other's pile;
Until Death calls us, whereupon we leave
The table, with a few behind to grieve.
Then gather in our chips, while outward goes
The soul upon that journey no one knows.
Grant when at last we stand at Heaven's gate,
When Peter from Missouri lies in wait,
That we can show him; grant up there that we
Can tell the good saint, with a conscience free,
"Master, I know not whether I made good,
But still I played my hand as best I could,
And on the square," then, even with our sin,
Perhaps we'll hear those blessed words, "Come in!"
'Tis not the cards that count beyond the skies,
It is the way they're played wins Paradise.

OREGON INJURED

THE Portland Telegram of Dec. 13, 1922, contained the following interesting news item on the Oregon situation relative to the obnoxious anti-church school law:

"Two outstanding reasons are given by W. G. Ide, colonization man of wide experience, why farmers of the Middle West refuse to come to Oregon to make their homes.

"One is that many farmers owe banks money as a result of the hard times for the past two years, and are not now in position (to migrate),

"The other reason is the results of the last election in Oregon, particularly the majority given the compulsory education bill.

"Ide is representing the Oregon State Chamber in an effort to attract settlers to Oregon, particularly to the Ochoco project. He has been traveling through the Middle West, meeting farmers and endeavoring to get them interested in migrating here.

"Thus far he has met with little success. In his correspondence he tells of the difficulties he encounters in getting farmers interested in Oregon. On top of the fact that many farmers are so deeply indebted that they are unable to move at this time, came the results of the Oregon election. These were heralded in big headlines in all the newspapers and all church publications. They caused many who were becoming interested to decline to consider further any plan to make a move.

"In one of his recent reports submitted to the State Chamber, Ide says:

"'Since the election I have been entirely on the defensive. This week I called on two ministers of the Holland church, one of whom had been in Oregon and thought it fine and would like to see a settlement of his people there, but he said now it could not be thought of until the courts had decided whether or not the compulsory school law was unconstitutional."

This un-American act on the part of the Oregon voters is giving their State a black eye, and the quickest way to remove the stigma is for the courts to declare the act unconstitutional, or for the people themselves to repeal this intolerant measure which is so hostile to the spirit of true Americanism.

WHY HE LIKES RATS

A young chaplain found a convict feeding a rat. "Ha! So you have a pet, eh?" he inquired.

"Yes, sir," replied the convict, his hoarse voice softening, and a gentle smile illuminating his hard face. "I think more of this rat than I do of any living creature!"

The chaplain laid his hand on the man's shoulder. "In every man," he said, "there is something good if you can but find it. How came you to take such a fancy to the rat?"

"It bit the Warden, sir," the convict replied.

BROTHER WAS SAFE

In spite of repeated warnings from his father, little Bobby persisted in driving nails into blocks and boards. He had arrived at the play-at-carpenter stage.

One morning dad heard the familiar pounding, and looking out he saw Bobby busily banging away—his little sister Mary down beside him, apparently looking on.

"Haven't I told you, Bobby, that you will mash your fingers if you drive nails?" the father asked.

"Yes, I know, dad, but Mary's holding the nail."—Savannah News.

"Naw, suh," said the little darky—"Been eatin' watermelon!"

RAILROAD EXTENSION HAS BEEN REVIVED IN NORTH

The Del Norte Triplicate states W. C. Ribenack, chairman of the board of directors of the California & Oregon Lumber Co. has returned from a two months' absence, and continues as follows: Mr. Ribenack leaves this week for Coos Bay, where he and his associates will formally take over the properties of the Buehner Lumber Company, which they recently purchased. Mr. Ribenack had little to say concerning plans for the future other than that the company will continue its operations along present lines. He is fully as enthusiastic, or more so, in regard to the outlook for development throughout this section, and reiterates the opinion that those who make investments in any portion of Curry or Del Norte counties are certain to realize handsomely. There has been considerable newspaper talk lately regarding the possible extension of the Northwestern Pacific railroad up the coast from Eureka to connect with the Southern Pacific at Marshfield, and it is very probable the big lumbering interests along this section are behind the move. At any rate it is hoped that some interesting information will be published concerning the local situation within a couple of weeks.

Hall's Catarrh Medicine

Those who are in a "run down" condition will notice that Catarrh bothers them much more than when they are in good health. This fact proves that while Catarrh is a local disease, it is greatly influenced by constitutional conditions.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE consists of an Ointment which Quickly Relieves by local application, and the Internal Medicine, a Tonic, which assists in improving the General Health.

April 13, 14—Fair along the coast, with clouds in the far interior and possibly rain from Oregon to the northward.

April 29, 30, May 1, 2, 3—Generally fair.

Why it pays to plant WASHINGTON NURSERY TREES

Our methods of growing produce hardy, well matured trees with a wonderful system of roots.

There's a reason—

We start right by selecting propagating wood from the most productive bearing orchards.

Only virgin new soil is used for nursery purposes which insures freedom from root pests and disease.

A long growing season and moisture under control assures steady, normal development in our nursery trees. Long days of sunshine, fertile soil and apple moisture combine to produce a sturdy vigorous growth.

The thorough cultivation practised in our nursery continuously throughout the growing season accounts for the wonderfully fine roots which our trees always carry. Good roots are the very foundation of a good nursery tree.

Every tree we ship is inspected three times—twice by us and once by the Deputy State Horticultural Inspector.

If you could visit our nursery, you too, would be convinced that it pays to buy the best trees you can find and that the Washington Nursery grows that kind.

Write for our free catalog describing a large assortment of trees, shrubs and plants, and one hundred varieties of Roses

Everything in standard fruit trees, shade trees, berries, shrubs, vines and roses.

"Clarence" Is Sure To Delight Everyone

When you see "Clarence" you see a rattling good show. The story tells the complications of the Wheeler family, and the influence Clarence, an ex-soldier exerts. The family is always at sixes and sevens, everyone is on the others' nerves. Mr. Wheeler is wound up in business. His wife is jealous of the pretty housemaid. The flapper daughter and the expelled-from-school-son, too, always quarreling, invite attention. Private Secretary Stem and the butler are other persons to reckon with.

Ever On Hand

Clarence comes to such a family from Texas. He is hard-boiled, always confident. Clarence stops an elopement of Stem and the rich daughter and then complications start. In preventing the elopement Clarence loses his pocketbook, Stem finds it and jumps to the conclusion Clarence is a deserter. Clarence complicates matters by falling in love with Violet. He is explaining Cora's attempted elopement to her when Bobby, who is madly in love with Violet, lands into Cora and they have a regular boy and girl scrap. Mrs. Wheeler decides Violet must go. Mr. Wheeler asserts he will leave with her.

Much Ado Ever

Matters are at a crisis and the home is on the verge of being broken up, when onto the scene, dressed immaculately, strolls Clarence, playing the saxophone. Cora, forgetting her imagined love for Stem, takes possession of him and leads him to her mother. Mrs. Wheeler decides there is a man who will appreciate her. Della also reacts to his charm, and together the three listen to the melody pouring from the saxophone.

Later that evening, Clarence and Mrs. Wheeler are together in the garden when the young man's attention is attracted by a beetle, and he completely forgets the woman by his side. Wheeler sees them from a window and demands an explanation.

Stem decides to play his trump card, and produces the supposedly incriminating pocketbook. Things look black for Clarence. Then Dinwiddy recollects that a letter once came for Dr. Smith and this is eventually dug up. It now develops Clarence is Dr. Smith, an eminent colcopterist. The letter is from the Dean of his college offering him a position as Professor of Etymology.

The end finds everyone happy.

Rain Keeps Coming -Cows Buy Wings

(Press Special Service)

Covelo, Calif., April 8, 1923.

Round Valley has a waterfront at last. If anyone doubts this, let him go to the Thomson Lake, and behold our lone seagull arguing the matter with the crows. The storm of the past week totals a rainfall of almost six inches, as Tod Hurt said, "it rained checks for awhile." More Bills who wish to go on record as being pleased with the timely downpour are: Buckeroo Bill, Chicken Bill, Deacon Bill, Soldier Bill, Strawberry Bill, Trapper Bill, and Bill. Incidentally it may be noted that all their wives call them Will. Former residents who also belong to the Bill family are Messrs. Lovell, Ornbaun and the two Van Dykes, all charter members of F. F. R. V.

The streams are crowded with salmon, and Thomson Lake nearly as high as in wintertime.

Indications at present are for clear weather, but Messrs. Bates and Tuttle operating the Lakeside Dairy believing in preparedness have placed a rush order with the Goodyear Rubber Co. for pontoon equipment for their Ford, and waterwings for all the cows.

The restaurant occupied by Chophouse Jack is being completely renovated by the owner, Grant Carner.

An oil station is being built at Dos Rios.

Ed. Campion is back from a winter in Humboldt county, working in Lovell's shoe store.

A flock of wild geese, about 50 in number, passed today going north.

$10,000,000 Rain A Godsend To State

The rain, which began falling a week ago last Friday, and which has kept up, sometimes coming down heavily and at other times turning to an April shower, is reported to have been worth a million dollars to Mendocino county and to have meant at least $10,000,000 to the state. It came just in time to save the crops of California. The rain broke a dry spell which had extended over 40 days and was one of the longest drouths known in many years. It was general throughout the state. To this time the total is amply sufficient for all present demands in Mendocino county and the fall in the large valleys of the state probably averaged three inches. In the big farming districts of the state the rain has salvaged millions of dollars in crops and has created a better feeling in all lines of business and trade. In Mendocino county it is not unlikely the present storm will be followed by later rains during this and next month, in which event the season will be better than the average as the mild winter weather advanced feed and winter-sown crops.

SCALES NEEDED BADLY ARE PRESENTED HEALTH BODY

The Kosmos Club of this city has purchased and presented to the community nurse, Miss Turner, a fine pair of weighing and measuring scales for use in estimating health standards among the school children.

The gift is a very commendable one inasmuch as the work of the nurse was seriously hampered without the use of the scales which are of white enamel of the latest recommended design.

Half A Foot Of Rain Has Fallen

(Press Special Service)

Potter Valley, April 9, 1923.

The weather is the most discussed subject just at present. The farmers are getting as anxious to see some fair weather as they were to see the rain—and still it pours. For the present storm the rain gauge at the power house measured 6.22 inches up to Monday evening. For the season we have had 29.62 inches, which is quite sufficient for our present needs.

At the picture show Friday evening a very interesting talk on the childhood and boyhood of John Muir was given by Herbert Whittaker, a high school freshman. After the picture, "Are You a Failure," a social dance was enjoyed until midnight. The picture machine is just half paid for now, and by the end of the term it is hoped the entire sum will have been turned over to the church trustees.

Gene Hopkins is in Santa Rosa on a business visit.

Mrs. Joe Thornton returned Sunday from a visit to Santa Rosa.

Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Murray are driving a new Buick Six.

Alberta, Leno and Ruby Leard, freshmen in the Ukiah high school visited friends here during their vacation last week.

Her many friends here are quite proud of the record being made by Miss Alice Hardisty, who is a student in the State Teachers College in Arcata. For the second time she has been first on the Honor Roll in that institution. Miss Hardisty was a graduate from the local high school last June.

Says Cream Applied in Nostrils Opens Air Passages Right Up.

Instant relief—no waiting. Your clogged nostrils open right up; the air passages of your head clear and you can breathe freely. No more hawking, snuffling, blowing, headache, dryness. No struggling for breath at night; your cold or catarrh disappears.

Get a small bottle of Ely's Cream Balm from your druggist now. Apply a little of this fragrant, antiseptic, healing cream in your nostrils. It penetrates through every air passage of the head, soothes the inflamed or swollen mucous membrane and relief comes instantly.

It's just fine. Don't stay stuffed-up with a cold or nasty catarrh.

DAMP, CHANGING WEATHER

Brings Its Toll of Sickness to Ukiah People.

Chilly, damp, changing weather is hard on the kidneys.

Even more irritating are colds, grip and pneumonia;

They congest the kidneys;

They bring backache and disordered kidney action.

For weak kidneys use a tested remedy.

Ukiah people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Ask your neighbor?

Mrs. R. T. Sullivan, 210 Clara Ave., Ukiah, says: "I consider Doan's Kidney Pills a splendid remedy as I have used them on different occasions when my kidneys have been disordered caused by colds settling on them. I felt dull and had no energy and my back was weak and ached so, I could scarcely do my work. Doan's Kidney Pills always relieved these attacks, strengthening my back and kidneys."

In San Francisco it's RED CROWN GASOLINE by 160%

78 of the first 161 motorists who passed the corner of Market and Kearny Streets, San Francisco, answered "Red Crown" to the question "What kind of gasoline do you prefer?"

The result of this check, in which "Red Crown" led its nearest competitor by 160%, is typical of the entire Pacific Coast field, where the majority of motorists get best results by using Red Crown, the gasoline of quality, and nothing else.

Preston Building, Ukiah.

ly completed grammar school building, built at a cost approximating $80,000. and a building any community may well be proud of, was formally opened, and this, together with a good high school, takes care of the educational facilities very well. Minetti & Wessels are just finishing a $40,000 block, while the Masons will soon start work on a $60,000 Masonic hall. The local chamber of commerce whose membership runs over some 400 people. is at present contemplating the erection of modern up-to-date electroliers throughout the business section, and when this work is completed, at night Ukiah will have a "Great White Way" of its own. Strangers in the community are struck by the immense number of automobiles parked on both sides of the city streets, noting in particular, the absence of the smaller priced cars, which speaks well for the community's prosperity.

What Is Grown Here

The best crops of the valley are pears, hops, prunes and the bugaboo of the railroad man when it comes to shipping season, grapes, and then some more grapes. The Bartlett pear of Ukiah is being recognized more and more each season in the Eastern market, and within a few years this valley will be one of the pear shipping centers of California, more young orchards being planted yearly, and lots of bearing trees coming in each year.

World Famous Plant

At Ukiah is located the celebrated California Grape Products Company's plant whose products are being shipped all over the United States, and who recently shipped under refrigeration to Torreon, Mexico, a carload of grape cuttings an indication that the products of this vicinity are sought for at other places.

The Beans We Pack

We would not be doing justice to the situation if we overlooked the wonderful Lake County string bean, which is accepted as the finest of its kind in California, and every summer finds the local cannery putting up thousands of cases of string beans, and employing many hundreds of people to take care of this work.

Part of 1922 Shipments

A summary of the more important shipments from this station for the year 1922 will offer the reader our true commercial standing, and submit the following record of outbound tonnage of the more important movements.
